

Lumbee River Christian College

Spring 2027 Course Schedule

MIN 110 Evangelism- A study of the New Testament patterns of personal evangelism as outlined by Jesus in word and deed and practiced by the early church in the Gospels and Acts. Current areas of opportunity in personal soul-winning are also studied. The purpose of the course is to familiarize the student with methods of evangelism and to provide practical experience.

BTH 200 Intro to Theology - An introduction to Christian doctrine based upon the —Statement of Fundamental Truth - listed by the General Council of the Assemblies of God.

ENG 112 Composition II- English Composition 2 builds upon the fundamentals of writing acquired in English Composition 1. In Composition 2 students move to more objective writing, using sources for their essays. It includes writing and revising of the nine basic paragraph types to be used in essays and research papers. Students will also be directed in development of a sound research paper which will include instruction and practice in library.

BNT 100 New Testament Survey- A survey of the New Testament in the context of the history, geography, and culture of its time, including the intertestamental period, Judaism in the time of Christ, the ministry of Jesus, and the apostolic church. The chief events, characters, and teachings of each book are studied in relation to the ongoing revelation of God's plan.

BOT 110 Pentateuch- The first five books of the Bible are studied in relation to Old Testament history and the divine plan. Factual content is stressed and detailed study is given to selected portions.

MUS 110-Fundamentals of Music- A study of the fundamentals of music including clef sign, note reading, rhythm, key signatures, and major scales. These skills are applied to a theoretical and practical approach to directing congregational singing as it relates to worship, edification of the body, and evangelism. Philosophy, purpose, and techniques of conducting are included with attention given to the selection of music for regularly scheduled services and special occasions.

BTH 212 Theology II- A course covering Christology, soteriology, anthropology, and hamartiology. Christology is a study of the person of Christ. Special attention will be given to His deity, pre-existence, incarnation, works, death, atonement, resurrection, ascension, and His present day work in His creation. Soteriology presents salvation through faith in Christ; regeneration, justification, sanctification, and the conditional security of the believer. Anthropology and hamartiology begin with the fall of Adam and Eve and show the consequences of the fall. The course deals with the present status of people and their destiny. Special attention will be given to various crucial issues that people face in this generation resulting from the fall.

HIS 131 Church History I- A survey of Church History from AD 100 to the Protestant Reformation. Emphasis is placed on early theological controversies, the formation of the early creeds, and the rise and development of the Roman Catholic Church.

BOT 120 Historical Books- A presentation of the history of Israel in the Old Testament books from Joshua to Esther inclusive, giving special attention to the purpose, outline, important events, and characters of each book.

MIN 327 Servant Leadership- Servant Leadership is a style that is exemplified throughout the ministry of Jesus Christ. This course will explain Servant Leadership as a leadership style, describe the skills and characteristics that servant leaders need, and discuss how to apply this leadership style to one's personal ministry.

MIS 210 Intro to Missions- An overview of the theology, history, and strategy of world missions. The course also considers the call and qualifications for missionary work, as well as the roles of the individual believer, the local church, and the district in missions.

SOC 100 Sociology- An introduction to the principles of human interaction and the resultant culture. Basic concepts of collective behavior, culture, personality, and social institutions are studied.

BTH 203 Spiritual Gifts- A comprehensive survey in the study of spiritual gifts. The discovery, maturity, and use of spiritual gifts in the church is the focus of the course.

MPM 230 Intro to Pastoral Ministry- A look at the overview of pastoral ministry, its demands, and the discipline needed to serve effectively in the role of a church pastor or support pastor. This course is a prerequisite for the Pastoral Ministry program and must be taken prior to all MPM 300 levels courses.

BOT 100 Old Testament Survey- A survey of the Old Testament in the context of the history, geography, and the culture of Old Testament times. The chief events, characters, and teachings of each book are studied in relation to their place in the ongoing revelation of God's plan.

MIN 212 Ministerial Ethics- An examination of accepted ethical principles in ministry. Emphasis is placed on the minister's relationship to his/her family, congregation, ministerial peers, the denomination, and the community. A portion of the course will deal with social issues such as euthanasia and abortion.

BNT 260 Revelation- A detailed study of the book Revelation. Emphasis is placed on the seven letters to the churches and the prophetic message. Various interpretations are presented in this study.

BNT 234 Pastoral Epistles- An exposition of I & II Timothy and Titus. Consideration is given to the authorship, date, the threat of Gnosticism, and the significance that these epistles have for church organization and for the function of the pastor of the local church.

APO 201 Apologetics- An introduction to the foundational understanding of, and skills within, the field of apologetics. Students will explore the major apologetics issues that arise today and will learn both the critical thinking skills and theological principles to respond persuasively.

BNT 232 Corinthians & Thessalonians- An analysis and exposition of each book stressing the historical background, devotional, and doctrinal matters, with special emphasis on the gifts of the Spirit.

EDU 311 Children Ministry- A survey of children's ministries in the local church. It includes children's church, vacation Bible school, children's crusades, sidewalk Sunday schools, kids' camp, Royal Rangers, Missionettes, etc. An examination is made of available materials and the most effective methods in both educational and evangelistic children's ministries.